Liberal Candidates Have Won in All Ridings Fully Reported.

RETURNS VERY IMCOMPLETE

Lloyd-George Delivers Speech, in Which He Hurls Defiance at Germany.

LONDON, January 16,-Practically no returns are in from the various disfriets where the first contests in the general elections were held yesterday, but the indications are that the Asquith government will be returned, with slightly reduced majority.

In all, voting for members for sixtysix ridings were held yesterday, out of six hundred and seventy. In only three of the ridings have the complete returns been posted, in all three the Liberal candidates being returned.

Jingoism Called Upon.

By way of closing the campaign, Lloyd-George, the chancellor of the exchequer, whose budget bill brought about the hostility of the lords and forced the general electrons upon the country, made a speech defiant of Germany and expressing full confidence in the strength of the British navy to meet and destroy any hostile German

"If the German fleet, to a moment of madness, attacked Great Britain, it would be at the bottom of the sea in a very few hours," he declared, a declaration which brought tunnituous cheers from his heavers, already excited tucky and Rainey of Illinois as demo- by the tenseness and vigor of the past two weeks' campaigning.
